A SLANDEROUS NEGRO BISHOP

Makes an Incendiary Speech in Regard to the Georgia Lynching. America's Problem.

America's Problem.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., April 25.—The New Jersey Annual Centerence of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion church was opened to-day in this city. Bishop Alexander Walters, D. D., presided. The visiting bishops were: J. W. Hood, D. D., LL. D., C. C. Petty, A. M., D. D.; C. R. Harris, D. D.; G. W. Clinton, D. D., and J. R. Small, D. D.

Bishop Walters in his address at the attention resiston litterly denounced the Georgia lynchings and said:

"The civilized world has been shocked by the unprecedented butchery and burning of Samuel Hose (colored) near Palmetto, Ga., on Sunday, April 22d. The frendishness of the crime beggars description. Samuel Hose was charged with killing Alfred Cranford (white) and assaulting his Cranford's) wife. It is said that he confessed to the killing of Cranford, but denied to the last assaulting his wife. It is generally believed by the fair minded that if Hose did kill Cranford, it was to avenge the killing of five colored, it was to avenge the killing of five ford, it was to avenge the killing of five colored men by a mob said to have been led by Cranford at Palmetto, March 18th." AS AN EXCUSE. After referring to newspaper comments that Hose outraged Mrs. Cranford, the that Hose outraged Mrs. Cranford, the Bishop asserted that the charge of assault was manufactured as a justification for the lynching. Adding that within a fortnight his atatement would be irrefutably established. "If," said Bishop Walters. "The good white people of the North are not disfilusioned and do not put a stop to this sweeping tide of lawlessners, it will not be long before they will be again called upon by a God of justice to give their best blood to pay the penalty of the crimes of the Sauth."

Contourse Bishop Walters said:

Norfolk and Western Train Jumps the Track Near Petersburg.

Westbound passenger train on the Norfolk and Western railway was wrecked co-night at Poo Station, about four mile east of Petersburg, and that no one was killed is a miracle.

The train left the track at a switch but whether or not the switch was open ed, is not known. The locomotive was pletely demolished, and the tender was also wrecked. The baggage and mail cars and all of the passenger coaches and sleepers left the track, and ran through a barbed+ wire fence for a distance of two hundred or three hundred yards into an open field. All but the sleeper was completely wrecked.

The engineer and fireman stuck bravely o their posts, but neither of them was injured. The injured are:

The German Ambassador Satisfied With the Way the Navy Department Dealt with It.

WASHINGTON, April 26.-The case of WASHINGTON, April 26.—The case of Captain Coglian may be considered as maning closed. The German Ambassador, Dr. Von Holleben, called at the White House this afternoon and had a conference on the subject with the President of such a satisfactory nature that the matter was regarded as settled. The President explained the course the Navy Department had taken in administering a regelment to Captain Coghlab. It was ances had been much exaggerated. On the part of the Ambassador there was every disposition to deal as lightly with the matter as possible, and not to per-mit it to become a source of friction. COGHLAN REPRIMANDED.
